AOGS Secretary

I am honored to be considered for the role of Honorary Auditor for AOGS. With a longstanding commitment to academic integrity and organizational transparency, I view this appointment as an opportunity to contribute to the Society's continued excellence in governance. Drawing on my experience in research leadership and institutional service, I am dedicated to upholding the financial accountability and ethical standards that support AOGS's mission. I look forward to serving the Society and its community in this important capacity.

Warm regards
