

Propose An Insightful Geoscience Expert Send in your nomination for a noteworthy key lecture speaker

We are pleased to announce that AOGS is accepting nominations for key lecture speakers for our 2025 Annual Meeting which will be taking place from 27 July to 01 August 2025 at the Marina Bay Sands Singapore's Expo & Convention Centre. We invite members to nominate distinguished individuals who have made significant contributions to geosciences and can provide valuable insights to our community.

Key Lecture Categories

1. Axford Lecture with a maximum of 2 per annual meeting. The Axford Lectures are society-level talks delivered on the opening day of the annual meeting to all attendees.
2. Distinguished Lecture with a maximum of 1 per section. The Section Distinguished Lectures focus on specific geoscience disciplines within the society, each headed by a Section President. The eight key areas are: Atmospheric Sciences, Biogeosciences, Hydrological Sciences, Interdisciplinary Geosciences, Ocean Sciences, Planetary Sciences, Solar & Terrestrial Sciences, and Solid Earth Sciences
3. Kamide Award Lecture with a maximum of 2 winners per section. The Kamide Lectures are award presentations by early career researchers. Like the Section Distinguished Lectures, the talks center on the society's eight geoscience disciplines.
