

AOGS2026 in Fukuoka, Japan

AOGS2026 Abstract Deadline – Final Extension

The abstract submission deadline for AOGS2026 has been extended once to 30 January 2026.

The one-off extension is provided to accommodate last-minute support requests and to allow time for resolving payment or technical issues. No further deadline extensions should be expected. Authors are encouraged to submit early, as some issues may require additional time to address.

While late abstracts are welcome, please note that the upcoming Chinese New Year holiday period will limit administrative and review capacity. Our goal is to complete all abstract reviews before the long holiday break begins, and timely submissions are essential.
